Set on a quiet cul de sac just moments from the station, this spacious one bedroom converted apartment offers easy, low-maintenance living with the rare bonus of its own private courtyard garden. With no chain and a share of the freehold, it's a great option for first time buyers or investors alike.

Life here is all about convenience and balance. Mornings can start with a relaxed walk to the mainline station, getting you into London via St Pancras with ease, while weekends are made for strolling around nearby Clarence Park, perfect for fresh air, coffee stops and switching off. The city centre is also close by, giving you plenty of choice when it comes to shops, cafés and places to eat.

Accessed via the courtyard garden, the apartment opens into a generous open plan kitchen, dining and living space, ideal for unwinding after work or having friends over. The modern kitchen sits comfortably within the space, making it practical without taking over. The double bedroom is a great size and leads through to a smart ensuite bathroom, creating a calm and private retreat.
